

ARE YOU AN EMERGING SUSTAINABILITY PROFESSIONAL WORKING TO SHAPE ACTION IN YOUR COMMUNITY?

Leading Change is a Canada-wide movement started by young environmental and sustainability professionals working together to catalyze action and influence positive change locally, regionally and internationally.

Leading Change kicks off with a Forum for 150 Emerging Leaders on March 13, 2012 in Vancouver. It complements the GLOBE 2012 conference and is focused on building the next generation of corporate leaders, policy thinkers, entrepreneurs and community actors.

Highlights:

- Meet with executive mentors
- Learn about green jobs
- Network with other talented young leaders

Individuals selected as participants will receive:

- Admission to the Forum's plenary panels, breakout sessions, keynotes and social activities designed for emerging environmental leaders
- Discounted accommodation in downtown Vancouver
- Unique networking opportunities with political and industry leaders in environment
- The opportunity to connect with 150 passionate emerging environmental leaders from across Canada

Additional benefits may include:

- Access to select GLOBE 2012 plenary panels, breakout sessions, keynotes and social events from March 14-16
- Partial subsidization of some expenses for out of town participants

Application Process:

If you are an emerging sustainability professional apply to be a participant at Leading Change 2012, please complete the online application at www.leadingchange2012.ca. The final round of applications closes on February 7, 2012.

Forum participation is limited. Already 50% full. Apply today!

It is free to apply, however the following fees will be charged for event attendance upon acceptance of an offer to participate in the event:

	Full-time Students	Non-Students
YEP/CEP Members	$20	$45
Non Members of YEP/CEP (fee includes a lifetime membership to YEP/CEP)	$50	$75

For more information please contact info@leadingchange2012.ca